6. Refusal to leave the premises after being ordered to do so by an agent of MCYA or an authorized league official constitutes criminal trespass and will result in prosecution.

Imposition of Penalties and Appeals

1. Any representative of the Madison County Youth Association, or official of a league using MCYA facilities, may order a person to leave the premises for violation of the Code of Conduct during a game, practice or event.

2. Penalties extending beyond expulsion from the current games or event shall be determined and imposed by the Board of Madison County Youth Association. Decisions of the Board shall be rendered in writing and delivered to the violator on the date of the rendering, either by personal delivery, or by placing the same in the U.S. Mail, first class, to the violator's last known address.
3. Any representative of the Madison County Youth Association or a league using recreation department facilities or anyone officiating activities found to be in violation of the Code of Conduct will be subject to receive double the standard penalty.
4. Penalties extending beyond the expulsion from the current game or event may be appealed to the Madison County Youth Association Board, whose decision will be final. An appeal must be in writing and delivered to the Madison County Youth Association Board within twenty-four hours of the imposition of the penalty by the violator stating the reason(s) for the appeal and shall include any documentation which might assist the MCYA Board in rendering a decision on the appeal. On appeal, the Madison County Youth Association Board may take such action as it deems appropriate within the reasonable exercise of its discretion, including without limitation lessening or increasing the period of suspension.
5. It is recognized that no policy, including this one, can specifically address all possible situations. Therefore, discretion is hereby granted to those persons given decision-making authority under this policy to apply judgment and discretion in addressing situations not described herein; furthermore, such persons are also granted discretion to modify penalties described herein, including the discretion to impose less than the "minimum" penalty, where extraordinary circumstances exist.
